ANGELENO ART WARS Los Angeles is always battling New York for the title of America's art capital, and this week is a good time to sample what Angeleno creators (and dealers) have to offer. The Los Angeles Art Show runs this weekend, along with the International Fine Print Dealers Association. Then another fair – the upstart Art Los Angeles Contemporary – launches with a VIP event on Thursday. It'll be a week of shows, parties and after parties. www.laartshow.com
