

THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

www.ocregister.com

Art | Irvine Museum

The Irvine Museum is presenting "Peaceful Awakening: Spring in California" through May 12. On view are works by artists such as John Gamble, Anna Hills and Edgar Payne who portrayed California as a beautiful, unspoiled land before the population boom of the 1940s. Pictured is "Landscape," a 1948 oil on canvas/board by Vernon Jay Morse. The Irvine Museum is at 18881 Von Karman Ave., Suite 100, Irvine. Admission is free; hours are 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesdays-Saturdays. Call 949-476-2565 or visit www.irvine-museum.org.

It's going to be a big week for art fairs in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles Art Show will return Wednesday through Jan. 28 at the Barker Hangar, Santa Monica Airport, 3021 Airport Ave. Art L.A. will run Friday through Jan. 28 at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium, 1855 Main St., Santa Monica. The last day of Photo L.A. is today at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. And the Los Angeles Fine Print Fair will be held Friday through Jan. 28 at LACMA West, 6067 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles. Admission varies from free to $50 for special receptions. Hours for the L.A. Art Show are noon-7 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, noon-6 p.m. Jan. 28. Other times vary. Call 310-822-9145 or visit www.laartshow.com, www.artfairsinc.com and www.laprintfair.com.

- RICHARD CHANG/The Register