DIVERSEartLA Presents Art to Address the Global Climate Crisis

For 2022, DIVERSEartLA, curated by Marisa Caichiolo, will present artistic visions that address the global climate crisis while advancing potential solutions. This week we highlight, The Other Waterfall & Chapala Also Drops Itself by Claudia Rodriguez. The exhibit is presented by MUSA Museum of the Arts of the University of Guadalajara and MCA Museum of Environmental Science, through the University of Guadalajara Foundation | USA, the Universidad de Guadalajara.

Two installations by the artist Claudia Rodríguez: La otra cascada –The Other Waterfall – and Chapala también se-a-gota – Chapala also Drops Itself – reflect the impact of scarce and contaminated water on the state of Jalisco, Mexico in recent decades.

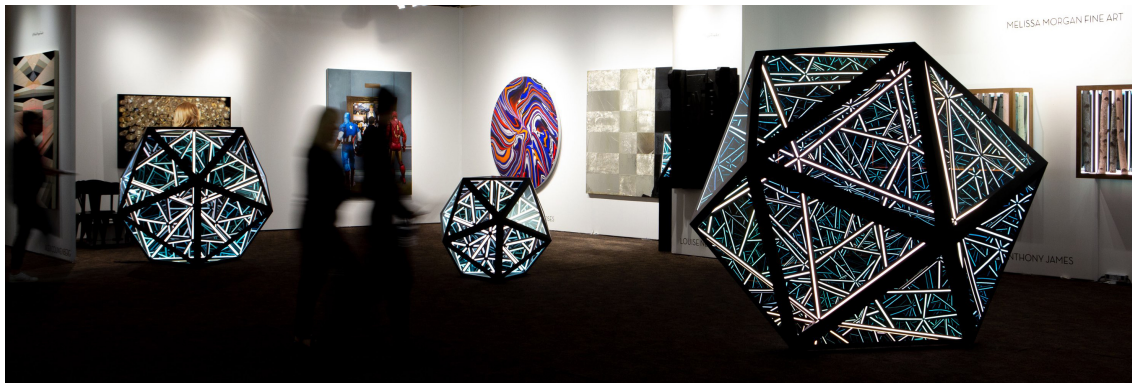

The MUSA Museum of the Arts exhibition program seeks to motivate social transformation. Through its focus on protecting the natural environment, MUSA was one of the first university properties that implemented sustainable actions related to the management and recycling of waste as well as the rational use of water and energy.

No More Chemo: Celebrating the Young Patients of St. Jude

Your LA Art Show Ticket Supports this Lifesaving Mission

Confetti, singing and cheering aren't what you think of when you think of a hospital. But St. Jude isn't just any hospital. And when patients receiving chemotherapy finish treatment, we celebrate with a No More Chemo party.

Isabella was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia at the age of two. When she was four years old, she finished her chemotherapy treatments at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital®. Families from Holy Rosary Catholic School, where Isabella's siblings, Kenneth and Mia, are students, had planned a big celebration for the family from more than 2,000 miles away but it was early in 2020 and Covid restrictions put a damper on those plans. Then, inspired by stories about caravans of teachers parading through local neighborhoods to support students during the pandemic, family and friends came up with an idea. They brought the party to Isabella. A caravan of parents and kids gathered outside the St. Jude campus to celebrate Isa and the end of her treatment.
