Join us when the LA Art Show returns in just 3 Weeks! January 19 to 23, 2022!

The LA Art Show is just three weeks away! We look forward to welcoming you back when the LA Art Show returns to the LA Convention Center South Hall, January 19 to 23, 2022. We hope you'll join us for the next exciting edition of captivating art from all around the globe!

With a focus on presenting engaging state of the art themes and the next edition of the compelling DIVERSEartLA program – exploring the nexus of art and the environment – the LA Art Show is gearing up for a spectacular launch of the 2022 Los Angeles art season while observing COVID protocols to keep everyone safe.

The first live show to showcase the NFT craze, the LA Art Show will once again present more eye-catching new media, digital and cutting-edge art trends. As the world adapts to the pandemic, the LA Art Show is gradually rebuilding its customary international roster of exhibitors, welcoming new and returning galleries from around the world.

Don't miss it! See below for ticket information and stay tuned for more updates...

COVID protocols at the LA Art Show: Your Health and Safety are most important!

The LA Art Show will observe the latest COVID protocols to keep everyone safe at the most comprehensive contemporary art fair in America.

All visitors must show proof of vaccination or show a negative 48-hour PCR or 24-hour Rapid test at admission. In addition, all visitors must wear masks on the premises. For your convenience, a Same-Day Health rapid testing facility is located outside Staples/Crypto.com Arena, within walking distance of the Convention Center.

European Pavilion Highlight: Galleria Stefano Forni

We are delighted to welcome Galleria Stefano Forni as an exhibiting gallery at the 2022 LA Art Show! Located in the heart of Bologna, Italy, the gallery was founded in 1996, building on the owner's 20-year experience specializing in fine art prints. Galleria Stefano Forni represents an array of established, mid-career and emerging artists known in Europe and around the world, working in a diverse range of media including painting, sculpture, printmaking and photography.

At this edition of the LA Art Show, Galleria Stefano Forni will present a selection of work by some of its most appreciated artists: Luciano Ventrone, Giorgio Bevignani, Edite Grinberga and Alessandro Rivola.

Luciano Ventrone is internationally recognized as one of the master realist painters of his generation. Masterful works of beauty, Ventrone's paintings invite a mood of contemplation, transporting the viewer into a metaphysical, hyper-real context. The artist died in April 2021 after a long career, exhibiting worldwide.

Edite Grinberga is a Berlin-based painter who uses light and shadow in their ever-changing dialectic as core themes of her work. In her depictions of interiors and still life motifs, Grinberga conjures up quiet moments recounting events from the past.

Alessandro Rivola is an artist and photographer based in Bologna. In great demand as a fashion and advertising photographer, he has produced many site specific projects, including, “L’Hardware ritrovato”, photographing objects built by Guglielmo Marconi to realize wireless communication using electromagnetic waves, leading to today’s cell phone.
