Featured DIVERSEartLA Exhibitions

We Are Water

Location: DIVERSEartLA Skid Row Project Area
Time: 4pm

Join Tom Grode and Stephany Campos in a discussion about Skid Row Cooling Resources located in the reality of downtown Los Angeles, which has become an urban heat island. Skid Row Cooling Resources was created in 2021 to address this reality. In essence, this community-oriented project will reinforce the value of translating environmental advocacy into a space for constructive conversations.

LA NEOMUDEJAR Museum/SPAIN

Project: Uninhabited
Artist: Carmen Isasi
Curator: Néstor Prieto

Carmen Isasi has worked on the UNINHABITED project since 2019. During this time, not only has the immigration crisis worsened, but developed countries have also tightened their policies to stop the immigration flow into their territories.

With new, tougher immigration policies in place, immigrants have lost all hope to find a place they can call home as they embark on a dangerous, life-threatening sea journey to reach European shores.

Isasi’s project features the clothes worn by immigrants on their way to Europe. Their clothes symbolize the many struggles they have faced before and during their journey: They are a testament to their lives, personal stories and country of origin.

From a critical standpoint, this proposal acts as a bridge connecting human drama to the rest of us.

Featured Exhibitions

We’re proud to present seven featured exhibitions at the LA Art Show this year. One of them, Searching in No Man’s Land, is a fascinating series of works by Spanish artist Julio Vaquero, presented by Pigment Gallery:

Searching In No Man’s Land:

Julio Vaquero

Presented by Pigment Gallery

Booth 1021

Julio Vaquero has developed his work as a painter around the world of culture, knowledge and his confrontation with the experience of time. For the LA Art Show 2023, Vaquero presents his latest small format gouaches exploring the ambiguity of identity. The works are digitally manipulated faces with a changing and brittle material quality that seems to evoke a sense of the fragility of our existence.
