14 Korean Galleries will Present Exhibitions at the 2023 LA Art Show!

We look forward to welcoming 14 Korean galleries who will join us as exhibitors at our upcoming edition. They are Gallery Chaman, LP Gallery, J & J Art Inc., Ryan Art, Gallery Elim, Artcelis, EK Gallery, Studio Artego, Gallery Eyn, Gallery Kari, Art in Dongsan, Jami Gallery, KMJ Art and Gallery PBG. This month we're pleased to highlight three of the Korean galleries:

EK Gallery

Based in the heart of LA's Koreatown, EK Gallery is a community-inspired venue founded by Director Eunice Kim. "I want the artists in our dynamic city of Los Angeles to feel inspired and motivated to pursue their aspirations, to express their talent, and to engage with their audience. My hope is that this love of art and culture will be shared as a communal experience, deepening our connection as a community," said Kim.

The gallery's LA Art Show presentation will feature artists Hyun Joo Choe and Chuni Park.

Hyun Joo Choe

Born in Seoul, South Korea, Hyun Joo Choe is a contemporary mixed media artist who often uses crystals in her paintings. In her work, she likes to explore the theme of life and reincarnation, where life is conceived, born, blossomed and disappeared again.

Hyun Joo Choe: The garden of my heart, 2021, Acrylic on canvas, 193 x 131 cm

Chuni Park

Chuni Park is a Korean artist who seeks to amalgamate western and eastern styles in his paintings. Park's practice mostly consists of painting traditional themes focused on localized natural and cultural phenomena, while often divorced from the rigid strictures of conventional Korean painting.

Chuni Park: A Winter Trip, 2022, Ink & acrylic on Hanji paper, 79 x 128 cm

J&J Art Inc. is a Los Angeles based contemporary art gallery representing new and emerging artists from South Korea and abroad. Located in LA's Koreatown, the gallery was founded in 2018. For its presentation at the 2023 LA Art Show, J&J Art Inc. will feature an exhibition of work by artist Lee Jin Hyu.

Lee Jin Hyu has traveled extensively and studied art in the Middle East and Europe. As his works show, he is an artist who always seeks freedom and always lives as a stranger. The theme of his works to be exhibited at the LA Art Show is "Donde Voy," immigrants' joys and dreams.

The expression "Aren't we all strangers?, Where do I go now" is an introduction to the exhibition of the works, including objects, media, and LEDs on flat drawings.

Gallery Chaman is engaged in representing Korean artists in the world market through collaboration with overseas galleries. The gallery also serves as a bridge for overseas galleries to establish networks in Korea. For its 2023 LA Art Show exhibition, Gallery Chaman highlights Sori Choi, an internationally-recognized Korean percussionist known for performing traditional Korean music styles and contemporary music.

Choi will show his artwork for the first time in Los Angeles at the LA Art Show. Working on copper plates, aluminum and other metals, Choi visually expresses his music using dance-like movements to paint, fire to transform color, and objects like drumsticks to create indentations based on the idea that every object and energy has its own sound.

Choi Sori: Visible Sound (Stories of Stars), 2021. Mixed media on canvas, 91 x 73 cm

Around the 2022 LA Art Show in 60 Seconds

The LA Art Show is honored that St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital® will return as our exclusive Charity Partner in 2023. St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital® is leading the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases. The purpose of St. Jude is clear: Finding cures. Saving Children. Art therapy is often part of a patient's treatment plan while they are battling cancer and other life-threatening diseases. We are grateful that the art community embraces and understands that art itself, can capture the hope and spirit of St. Jude patients and our lifesaving mission: Finding cures. Saving Children®.
