Save the Dates: LA Art Show & Art Palm Beach 2026

The new year brings two premier opportunities to discover contemporary art, connect with galleries from around the world, and add to your collection. Both the LA Art Show and Art Palm Beach return in early 2026, offering distinct experiences for art enthusiasts on both coasts.

Both shows provide unique opportunities to engage with international galleries, meet artists, and discover works for your collection as the art world launches into 2026. Whether you're drawn to Los Angeles' diverse artistic landscape or Palm Beach's refined collecting environment, both shows promise memorable experiences for art lovers.

LA Art Show: January 7–11, 2026

LA Convention Center's West Hall, Los Angeles

Experience the diversity of contemporary, emerging, and modern art from galleries across Europe, Asia, North America, and Latin America. The 2026 edition will feature curated sections alongside the popular DIVERSEartLA program, building on the success of our recent 30th anniversary celebration. Los Angeles' active art scene provides the backdrop for discovering new artists and reconnecting with established voices in contemporary art. ## Art Palm Beach 2026: January 28–February 1, 2026

Palm Beach County Convention Center, West Palm Beach

Join collectors and art enthusiasts during Palm Beach's peak winter season for a carefully curated selection of established galleries and emerging voices. The show offers an intimate setting to view and acquire works that reflect current trends while discovering new perspectives in contemporary art. Palm Beach's growing reputation as an art destination makes this an ideal time to explore the market. For tickets and information, visit: artpalmbeach.com
