LA Art Show 2026: Strong Korean Presence, Athletes for Life, and American Heart Association Return + Tickets Now Available

As tickets go on sale for the LA Art Show's 31st edition, scheduled for January 7-11, 2026 at the LA Convention Center, we're pleased to share updates on returning partners and exhibitors. This month, we highlight a strong Korean presence with 15 galleries, the return of Athletes for Life™ Foundation as an exhibitor, and the continued partnership with the American Heart Association.

Strong Korean Presence with 15 Galleries

The LA Art Show 2026 features a strong Korean presence with 15 galleries participating in the show. These galleries represent contemporary and modern art from South Korea and beyond, adding to the international scope of the fair.

Athletes for Life™ Foundation Returns

Athletes for Life™ Foundation returns to the LA Art Show 2026 as an exhibitor. The non-profit foundation is dedicated to empowering children through sports and mentorship.

Founded by Greg Bell, Athletes for Life™ has built its mission on the transformative power of mentorship. As Bell shares: "From a young age, I was fortunate to have mentors who believed in me and guided me toward realizing my potential. Their unwavering support and guidance shaped my aspirations and instilled in me the importance of paying it forward."

Through their programs and initiatives, Athletes for Life™ cultivates a culture of mentorship that promotes personal growth, resilience, and a sense of belonging. The foundation provides educational services, career guidance, and support systems to help young people find and achieve their dreams. Their participation at the LA Art Show 2026 continues their mission to reaching and inspiring the next generation through art.

American Heart Association Partnership Continues

The LA Art Show is pleased to continue its partnership with the American Heart Association (AHA) as our 2026 charity beneficiary. LA Art Show is a proud supporter of the American Heart Association's Life is Why™ campaign. We support the AHA's mission to prevent death and disability caused by cardiovascular disease and stroke, two of the most significant health challenges in our society.

With a portion of every ticket purchase, the LA Art Show contributes to funding the American Heart Association's mission, which includes CPR education, training and development of science-based CPR guidelines and techniques to help strengthen the chain of survival. Dedicated to working with passion and purpose in a people-centered way, the American Heart Association has had a tremendous impact on advancing knowledge about heart and brain health with the goal of providing everyone the chance for a full, healthy life.
