LA Art Show News

LA Art Show Opens Today!

The LA Art Show's 31st edition opens today at the Los Angeles Convention Center. Running through Sunday, January 11, the show brings together galleries from around the world, presenting modern and contemporary art across painting, sculpture, photography, mixed media, and installation. This year's edition features first-time exhibitors from Ireland, Switzerland, Poland, France, Israel, Greece, and South Africa, alongside an expanded presence from United Kingdom galleries and 15 participating South Korean galleries.

Opening Tonight with Sasha Pieterse

Tonight's Opening Night Premiere Party, beginning at 6:00 PM, will be hosted by Sasha Pieterse, actress, singer, and entrepreneur best known for her role as Alison DiLaurentis in the television series Pretty Little Liars. Pieterse has also competed on Dancing with the Stars and appeared in numerous film and television projects throughout her career. Her presence as host reflects the LA Art Show's connection to Los Angeles' creative community across disciplines.

"We're thrilled to welcome Sasha Pieterse as our Opening Night host," says Kassandra Voyagis, Producer and Director of the LA Art Show. "Her support helps amplify our mission to bring art and community together. As LA's longest-running art fair, we work to create a show that reflects this city's creative energy and welcomes both longtime collectors and those discovering contemporary art for the first time."

Advanced Tickets Available

Advanced tickets are available online at laartshow.com. Purchasing tickets online allows you to bypass lines at the door and head straight into the show. The fair is open daily through Sunday, January 11, with extended hours throughout the week.

Supporting the American Heart Association

The LA Art Show continues its partnership with the American Heart Association as our 2026 charity beneficiary. Fifteen percent of all ticket proceeds benefit the American Heart Association's Life is Why™ campaign, supporting their mission to prevent death and disability caused by cardiovascular disease and stroke. This partnership reflects the LA Art Show's commitment to leveraging the arts for community impact and public health.

Athletes for Life™ Foundation

Athletes for Life™ Foundation returns as an exhibitor, bringing their youth empowerment programs through art and mentorship to the show. Founded by Greg Bell, the non-profit foundation is dedicated to empowering children through sports, arts education, and mentorship, helping young people discover and pursue their dreams.

American Heart Association Partnership Continues

The LA Art Show is pleased to continue its partnership with the American Heart Association (AHA) as our 2026 charity beneficiary. LA Art Show is a proud supporter of the American Heart Association's Life is Why™ campaign. We support the AHA's mission to prevent death and disability caused by cardiovascular disease and stroke, two of the most significant health challenges in our society.

With a portion of every ticket purchase, the LA Art Show contributes to funding the American Heart Association's mission, which includes CPR education, training and development of science-based CPR guidelines and techniques to help strengthen the chain of survival. Dedicated to working with passion and purpose in a people-centered way, the American Heart Association has had a tremendous impact on advancing knowledge about heart and brain health with the goal of providing everyone the chance for a full, healthy life.
