LA Art Show 2024 Presents a Dynamic Program for Art Lovers & Advances the Dialogue on Humanity, Memory and AI...

The LA Art Show, the city's premier and longest-running art fair, concluded its 29th year with an exceptional display of international talent and groundbreaking exhibitions at the Los Angeles Convention Center from February 14-18, 2024. Under the guidance of producer and director Kassandra Voyagis, the show brought together a diverse group of galleries, curators, collectors, and notable personalities.

This year, the LA Art Show presented an impressive international lineup of more than 100 exhibitors including galleries from the Philippines, South Korea, Europe, Israel, Central America, South America and beyond.

"The LA Art Show is a one-stop destination for the public and collectors to view artwork from all over the world as we continue our commitment to delivering the most comprehensive and international contemporary art experience possible," said Kassandra Voyagis, LA Art Show producer/director.

The fair debuted with a successful Valentine's Day Opening Night Premiere Party hosted by award-winning actress Lucy Hale. The evening was a benefit for the LA Art Show's 2024 charity partner, the American Heart Association, which received 15 percent of ticket sales in support of the organization's Life is Why™ campaign.

LA Art Show's non commercial platform dedicated to Museums and Non Profits, DIVERSEartLA, partnered with seven international art institutions to explore the intersection of memory and AI. Projects included the Nevada Museum of Art that presented The Journey by Guillermo Bert, featuring 20 life-sized wood sculptures of immigrants employed as frontline workers during the pandemic as a way to explore how ancient traditions and AI merge to create narratives of identity and memory. AAL Museum (Santiago, Chile) presented a hypnotizing visual narrative, Be Water, led by esteemed artist, Antuan, highlighting the essential collaboration between humanity and AI to create a new network of human consciousness. DIVERSEartLA is curated by Marisa Caichiolo. Following is the full list of institutions for this year's DIVERSEartLA:

- AAL Museum – Santiago, Chile
- Lancaster Museum of Art and History (MOAH)
- MAC — Museum of Contemporary Art, Bogotá
- MUSA Museum of Art University of Guadalajara, Grodman Legacy and Guadalajara Foundation, Mexico
- Nevada Museum of Art
- Raubtier & Unicus Productions, Los Angeles
- Red Line Contemporary Art Center, Denver, Colorado

LA Art Show Proudly Supports the American Heart Association in its 100th Year!

The LA Art Show is pleased to be partnering with the American Heart Association (AHA), our 2024 charity beneficiary. We're proud to support the American Heart Association in its commitment to help prevent death and disability from cardiovascular disease and stroke – the major health problems in our society.

We're especially happy to be supporting the American Heart Association in its 100th year. With a portion of every ticket purchase, the LA Art Show contributes to funding the mission of the American Heart Association – which includes CPR education, training and development of science-based CPR guidelines and techniques to help strengthen the chain of survival. Dedicated to working with passion and purpose in a people-centered way, the American Heart Association has had a tremendous impact on advancing knowledge about heart and brain health with the goal to providing everyone the chance for full, healthy life.

LA Art Show is a proud supporter of the American Heart Association's Life is Why™ campaign
