Returning to the LA Art Show in 2023!

K+Y Contemporary

We're delighted to highlight K+Y Contemporary, a Paris based art gallery representing international contemporary artists. Here's an intriguing look at two of the gallery's artists, Cécile Plaisance and Jeff Robb.

Cécile Plaisance

Cécile Plaisance is a politically motivated French artist who fights for women's emancipation through her photography. In her recent series of dramatic black and white photographs, "Wild Woman," Plaisance immerses her model Olga Kent in threatened natural settings in South Africa. She also captures the female nude interacting with local wildlife, like elephants, young tigers, lions and cheetahs. Her images are odes to the freedom of women everywhere. See images here.

Jeff Robb

Jeff Robb is a British artist best known for his lenticular photographic work focusing on the female nude and abstract forms in space. Recently, Robb has begun creating bronze sculptures referencing the female nude, using cutting-edge modeling technology combined with historic casting techniques. He is also pursuing new projects exploring how we experience sound, as well as large-scale kinetic installations for public spaces, museums and galleries.

St. Jude Returns as Our Exclusive Charity Partner for the 8th Year!

We Join St. Jude in Celebrating 12 Young Survivors who Graduated High School this June

The LA Art Show is honored that St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital® will return as our exclusive Charity Partner in 2023 for the 8th year! This month, we join St. Jude in congratulating 12 young St. Jude patients, each one a cancer survivor who just graduated high school. Becoming the people they are today hasn’t been easy, but these survivors graduated with their passions and dreams intact. As they celebrate milestones such as prom, graduation and college acceptances, they reflect on the childhoods that shaped them and look forward toward their futures.
