LA Art Show News

LA Art Show 2021 Exhibiting Galleries & Program Updates!

We're delighted the LA Art Show will return to the Los Angeles Convention Center from July 29 to August 1, 2021, helping to re-energize the LA art scene after the long quiet months of the pandemic. The most comprehensive art fair on the west coast, the LA Art Show also presents one of the most diverse and engaging programs in the world. This year, we're pleased to host an exciting lineup of exhibitors specializing in contemporary and modern art, as well as classical and other specialized areas that often command their own dedicated shows. A full agenda of events, performances and specially curated exhibitions along with our exciting DIVERSEartLA program curated by Marisa Caichiolo, will round out the fair. See below for details!

In her first year as LA Art Show director and producer, after serving as the fair's executive director for several years, Kassandra Voyagis expressed her commitment to hosting a spectacular and safe event that will boost the local art market as we emerge from Covid. The fair will also be presented on Artsy, the online platform. For more details, see below or visit the LA Art Show page on Artsy.

For our 26th year, the LA Art Show is pleased to welcome more than 80 exhibiting galleries and museums from North & South America, Asia and Europe. See the list of exhibitors below.

The LA Art Show truly offers something for everyone!

PURCHASE WORKS ONLINE:
LA Art Show Partners with Artsy!

We're thrilled to announce our partnership with Artsy for the LA Art Show Summer 2021 edition! The leading online marketplace for discovering, buying and selling fine art, Artsy is the exclusive digital marketplace for the LA Art Show. Participating galleries will be featured on the Artsy website, allowing viewers to view and purchase art online even if you can't attend the show! Using Artsy's special interior room mock-up tool, you'll also be able to get a virtual preview of how an artwork would look in your home.

Artsy will launch a digital preview of the fair on July 26.
