The Most Comprehensive International Contemporary Art Show in America

LA Art Show News

LA Art Show Welcomes a Spectacular Line-up of 120+ Prestigious Exhibitors for 2023 Edition

We're excited to host an outstanding roster of more than 120 exhibiting galleries from North America and around the world when we return to the LA County Convention Center February 15 to 19. The Show's 2023 edition will include both European and Japanese Pavilions and the fair's largest contingent of Korean galleries to date. "This year we have the largest global presence we've ever had," said LA Art Show producer / director Kassandra Voyagis. "One of the most powerful aspects about art is its ability to bring people together and ignite transformative conversations. We're thrilled that our vast international presence this year ensures conversations that are both expansive and inclusive."

We're also pleased to present the 2023 edition of DIVERSEartLA curated by Marisa Caichiolo. The LA Art Show's cutting-edge exhibition platform will feature collaborative installations by international museums and art organizations with a focus on the global climate crisis.

The 5-day event kicks off with a star-studded Opening Night Premiere featuring a secret celebrity host, complimentary hors d'oeuvres and beverages – a benefit for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital®. Fifteen percent of all fair ticket proceeds will benefit St. Jude.
